These are recommended arrival and departure dates. Please contact the Dickinson-in-Bremen staff as soon as possible should you have reasons for arriving earlier. In all cases, you must provide the Dickinson-in-Bremen staff with your exact travel plans and itinerary at least four weeks in advance. As for departures, it is recommended that all students stay until at least the end of July in order to finish term papers, exams, and other coursework before returning to Dickinson. In some years, the departure date may be less flexible due to summer programming.*

As part of the official Dickinson-in-Bremen program, several excursions and events will take place throughout the year. Please do not book any trips without consulting with the Dickinson-in-Bremen staff first.
